6. "Hatch"
   https://archive.org/details/Hatch
   There's sure to be gossip after Penny's attempt to mix up her own batch of perfume in the lab turns grotesque.

7. "In Orders We Trust"
   https://archive.org/details/InOrdersWeTrustvideo
   Greek gods turned to stone by Medusa's granddaughter appear in modern times unrecognizable as anything but statues in a park, and are further rendered unrecognizable after they employ mind control to cause an unsuspecting mortal to spray paint angry graffiti on each other.

8. "Inspector Burgundy"
   https://archive.org/details/InspectorBurgundy
   A homicide investigator prompts witnesses in reconstructing the moment of a crime, using techniques normally reserved for coaching actors.

9. “Larry Houdini and Crazy Napoleon Escape”
   https://archive.org/details/LarryHoudiniAndNapoleonEscapevideo
   When Larry Houdini and Crazy Napoleon escape an insane asylum and join the circus, Houdini’s straitjacket becomes an odd part of the trapeze act.

10. “Log of a Log Log”
    https://archive.org/details/JonathanDSteinhoff_2
    Documentary of a documentary about a company that carves giant old trees into furniture (with a cha-cha-cha song included for perspective).

11. “Mall Man”
    https://archive.org/details/JonathanDavidSteinhoff_0
    Suddenly Reginald Peabody can magically, truly feel everything going on in the shopping mall he owns, and stops wearing socks.

12. “The Mistake Is On Your Right”
    https://archive.org/details/JonathanDSteinhoff_1
    A card game among friends is tinged with the surreal and the presence of an outside force.

13. “Robot Ad Agency”
    https://archive.org/details/JonathanDavidSteinhoff_19
    Asks the question, Do robots know how to get people to do things?

14. “Snow On The Way”
    https://archive.org/details/JonathanDSteinhoff_12
    A deranged homeless woman, immersed in her out loud endless monologue with herself, is almost aware when an intoxicated millionaire sees her in her street home, instantly falling in love with her, only for a few brief minutes before he tunes in on how gone she is.

15. “Steinhoff’s Monster”
    https://archive.org/details/JonathanDavidSteinhoff_7
    Presented by a narrator over documentary footage of children playing, the story of cave dwellers in prehistoric times (for whom rituals are everybody’s favorite activity) being attacked by Henry the Spaceship.

16. “That Dream Is Mine”
    https://archive.org/details/DreamIsMineReborn2.21.13
    (music video) Featuring real birds competing for real bread crumbs, and a fountain with frogs made of stone, water flowing from their mouths.
